1. An anti-Communist Action Committee was recently formed in Argentina by Guillermo Solveyra Casares, Captain Jorge Osinde, Chief of the Coordination Section of the Federal Police, (fnu) Gonzales, Assistant Chief of Seccion Especial (anti-Communist) of the Federal Police, and several others including two lawyers who are reported to be experts on Communism.
2. Several months ago President Peron had instructed Solveyra Casares, chief of his political information service, to create such an Action Committee. When Peron asked for a report on the status of the Committee and was informed that nothing had been done, he again instructed Solveyra Casares to proceed immediately on the program.
3. The Committee is to establish within the various labor entities, such as unions, large factories and labor schools, an organizational set-up similar to that of the Communist Party. The function of the Committee is to counteract the activities of the Communists among the laborers, and to report any instances of undesirable political agitation, slow-downs and sabotage. The union, factory or school where Communism is strongest will be the first in which a cell system will be set up composed of confidential members of the Committee.
